

Gary Zelesky is not just a speaker he is an experience: a human defibrillator.

A true hybrid; from the energy of Richard Simmons; the wisdom of Dr. Phil and the laughter of your best friend from junior high...this is one person you are not going to forget.

Gary developed curriculum and taught at North Central College in Minneapolis, MN; created "Youth Invasion: Student Leadership"; He is also the author of "The Passion Centered Person". From the board room to the convention center, he inspires all- with his hallmarked energy and explosive humor.

Gary Zelesky has had the privilege of wowing audiences from around the world. From Australia, Europe and North America, companies such as MasterCard Int., Hallmark Cards, Hilton Hotel, Boeing Aircraft, ADA, and the University of Alabama have all requested the unique and one of a kind message that only Gary can give. Passion is center to Gary. It is in everything he does. There is no half way for this short little stick of dynamite.

Please help me welcome GARY ZELESKY.
